TERMS & CONDITIONS (T'S & C'S)

BONGO SERVICES makes no claims as to the overall efficacy of this sanitary control process. This is an application that has proven itself in a variety of applications, in a variety of environments, however, it would be impossible to foresee every possible condition, which may deter, or negate the overall effectiveness of this application.

BONGO SERVICES will, to the best of its ability, insure complete coverage of all surfaces in the areas, and rooms that are being treated. However, due to the nature of the product being applied, BONGO SERVICES is not liable for any water damage to equipment, machinery, or other surfaces that could normally be damaged by water. All surfaces that are deemed critical are to be covered, or removed by the client, prior to application. (If this equipment, etc. is in the area or room to be treated, it will be given the same application as the surfaces that have been contracted for this treatment.

BONGO SERVICES reserves the right to halt, or stop any treatment application that, in its discretion, it considers either unsafe, inappropriate, or would in any way allow the operator to be in a position that is uncomfortable.

BONGO SERVICES, will, at its discretion, apply additional disinfectant, or an applicable deodorizer, to areas that are considered particularly difficult. Should a representative of the client be present, BONGO SERVICES will consult, prior to such application, as there may be an additional charge for this procedure.

BONGO SERVICES will make every attempt to insure the overall cleanliness of its actions while on the clients premises, and will behave in a professional manner at all times.

BONGO SERVICES will insure that all possible safety measures will be taken to insure the safety of the clients personell, residents, and tradespeople, while on premises. (This includes, but is not limited to proper signage, and restriction of areas, rooms, and working environments.) The client is ultimately responsible for the safety of its people, residents, customers and tradespeople. BONGO SERVICES will not be held liable for any accidents, while on-site.

The BONGO SERVICES personell performing the application process will be trained, and verified by BONGO SERVICES as adequate to perform this operation.

Anything outside the scope of this application, or agreement, shall be discussed, and agreed to in writing, prior to amending or changing this process.
